THE HICKMAN AND PADUCAH R.R.

The Hickman and Paducah railroad project is not sleeping. The project will be carried out as soon as it becomes a reality. (Paducah News.)

We are going to have the railroad from Cairo to Memphis via Hickman, or the road from Paducah via Hickman to a connection with the Cotton Belt and other trans-Mississippi roads, and Paducah will be a great city, as it is left out. That's the situation.

What do you say, Mr. News?

Edmund Currier.

You are "cool" in stating "the situation," to say the least. But that matters little. Our city wants the Paducah and Hickman road and is willing to do her part to secure its construction, when asked to do so. Here it has always been understood the project is in the hands of leading citizens of Hickman, and their pleasure and action in the premises has been swayed. If it is the wish of the

GRAND OPENING

Next Monday night the Dean &

Edlin Co. will give their first performance at the City Hall. They have left nothing undone to give the best performance the citizens of Hickman have ever witnessed.

Nearly all their company are already here, and the grand open-
